

CALL FOR PAPERS

International Conference on Development Economics

AFEDEV#1

The CERDI will host the 2022 International Conference in Development Economics (ICDE) that is a follow-up of the 2021 edition that was jointly organized by DIAL (IRD - PSL - CNRS) and GREThA (Université de Bordeaux - CNRS).

ICDE 2022 - June 30 - July 1 2022
Clermont-Ferrand (France)

The objective of the conference is to be a forum for discussing innovative research in development economics, and rediscover the pleasure of face-to-face interactions with a large network of colleagues. Both empirical and theoretical contributions and wide ranges of topics are welcome to the conference. Issues of interest include, but are not limited to migration, climate change, monetary policy, growth, poverty, environment, taxation, agriculture, health, international trade, inequality, digitalization, firm performances, employment or conflict issues.

The event will be on-site. If this was necessary because of the evolution of the health situation, the conference will become fully or partly virtual.

The French association on development economics, the AFEDEV federates researchers and practitioners in the field of development economics and promotes research in development economics in France.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS Rabah Arezki (African Development Bank)
Jean-Marie Baland (University of Namur)
Ana María Ibáñez (Universidad de los Andes, Inter-American Development Bank)

SUBMITTING PAPERS & IMPORTANT DATES

Only full paper submissions (either in English or in French) will be considered for the conference.

The deadline for submission is March 20th, 2022

Paper submission and info: <https://icde2022.sciencesconf.org>

Paper presentations will be performed with parallel sessions and poster sessions. Authors chosen to present papers or posters will be notified by mid-April. A preliminary program will be announced by mid-May.

FUNDING

There will be a limited budget to fund travel and accommodation expenses for presenters who are currently living and working in developing countries to cover travel costs to Clermont-Ferrand, accommodation, and registration fees. Application for this financial support has to be made during the submission process.
